

Write a press release for the theatrical release of "Floored: A Garage & BMX Story". This release stars BMX Legend Greg Hill and Lititz BMX's Kyle A. Huffman. The story follows Greg's trip through Kyle's garage discussing garage flooring options and BMX. Specifically, the following were discussed in the podcast story:

- 1) Greg Hill talking about options for my garage floor and his process.
- 2) Greg Hill talks about posting pictures to his Facebook page of his work.
- 3) Greg Hill let's Kyle ask questions about a DIRTWERX bike he is restoring.
- 4) Did Greg Hill Inspired Harry Leary's signature Jump "The Leary"?
- 5) Greg Hill Discusses Boys-Being-Boys with Freeway Food Fight with Diamondback BMX Team on The 40 Freeway.
- 6) Greg Hill was asked How Did You Meet Harry Leary? Was it at Western Sports Arama (WSA)?
- 7) Greg Hill - "You Have to Be All In" To Win a Title
- 8) Greg Hill Discusses Clint Miller, Stu Thomsen, and Harry Leary Doing Gates at his parents house with his Dad dropping the gates occasionally.
- 9) Greg Hill Was asked if Harry Leary was Boastful After Getting a Named Jump?
- 10) Greg Hill discussing Pete Loncarevich Kicking his Tire in the 1985 NBL Grands and Greg's response.
- 11) Greg Hill says he Had "No Beef" with Harry Leary.
- 12) Greg Hill's Thoughts on BMX as a Hobby vs Business.
- 13) Greg Hill says "When I Got On The Track I Focused On What I Was Doing".
- 14) Greg Hill mentions "Nobody is getting wealthy off BMX"
- 15) Greg Hill Discusses Shutting Down GHP and Moving On.
- 16) Greg Hill discussing the "Bro Price" - What's My Price?
- 17) Greg Hill discusses "how you are not making money selling frames"
- 18) Greg Hill discussing the fact that BMX frame companies are lucky to sell 2000 Frames per year
- 19) Greg Hill heard crickets when he shut down GHP
- 20) Greg Hill discussing having people you think are your friends - "my phone never rang. It just completely stopped"
- 21) Greg Hill "Not For All of The Money in The World" discussing a return the the BMX business
- 22) discussing being super happy outside of BMX

Lititz BMX is currently working on a 3 - 5 year plan to launch a business with a "Mission of preserving BMX history and providing access to high quality vintage BMX rentals." The organization can be found on:

- Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=61573071505099>
- And YouTube @LititzBMX17543 <https://www.youtube.com/@LititzBMX17543/videos>
- More social media opportunities coming soon.

“Floored: A BMX & Garage Story” Premieres in Home Theaters — A Ride Through BMX History and Garage Goals with BMX Legend Greg Hill

Lititz, PA – Prepare for a cinematic journey that blends the grit of BMX racing with the art of garage craftsmanship in the new documentary, Floored: A BMX & Garage Story. This unique film stars BMX legend Greg Hill and Lititz BMX's founder Kyle A. Huffman, offering an intimate look into the world of BMX through a new lens.

In this groundbreaking documentary, Greg Hill, a BMX Hall of Famer, takes viewers on a personal tour of Huffman's garage, discussing everything from garage flooring options to the restoration of a vintage DIRTWERX bike. The film delves into Hill's extensive career, including his early days with BMX legends like Harry Leary, Clint Miller, and Stu Thomsen. Hill opens up about pivotal moments in BMX history, learns he was the inspiration for “The Leary”, and his reflections on the sport's evolution.

Beyond the racing, the documentary explores the business side of BMX, featuring candid discussions about Hill's experience shutting down Greg Hill Products (GHP) and the challenges of sustaining a BMX business. Hill shares insights into the financial realities of the industry, emphasizing the passion and dedication required to succeed.

Lititz BMX, known for its commitment to preserving BMX history, is currently developing a 3-5 year plan to launch a business focused on preserving BMX history and providing access to high-quality vintage BMX rentals. This initiative aims to make BMX history accessible to a new generation of riders and enthusiasts.

Floored: A Garage & BMX Story is set to premiere in home theaters worldwide through this podcast. For more information on screenings and to learn more about Lititz BMX's upcoming projects, visit <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=61573071505099> or their YouTube page at <https://www.youtube.com/@LititzBMX17543/videos>

About Greg Hill:

Greg Hill is a BMX Hall of Famer and one of the most influential figures in the sport's history. With numerous national titles and a pioneering spirit, Hill has significantly shaped the landscape of BMX racing and continues to inspire riders worldwide.

Epoxy Surface Professionals:

Learn more about Greg's 'new' business: www.epoxysurfaceprosca.com

Instagram - <https://www.instagram.com/epoxysurfaceprofessionals/>

Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/greg.hill.540618>

Full Length Video (podcast): <https://youtu.be/7rpUnpmYuxU>

“Floored: A BMX & Garage Story” Take a Ride with BMX Legend Greg Hill in a Documentary Podcast #BMX

“Floored: A BMX & Garage Story” Premieres in Home Theaters — A Ride Through BMX History and Garage Goals with BMX Legend Greg Hill - The Theatrical Release

Lititz, PA – Prepare for a cinematic journey that blends the grit of BMX racing with the art of garage craftsmanship in the new documentary, Floored: A BMX & Garage Story. This unique film stars BMX legend Greg Hill and Lititz BMX’s founder Kyle A. Huffman, offering an intimate look into the world of BMX through a new lens.

In this groundbreaking documentary, Greg Hill, a BMX Hall of Famer, takes viewers on a personal tour of Huffman's garage, discussing everything from garage flooring options to the restoration of a vintage DIRTWERX bike. The film delves into Hill's extensive career, including his early days with BMX legends like Harry Leary, Clint Miller, and Stu Thomsen. Hill opens up about pivotal moments in BMX history, learns he was the inspiration for “The Leary”, and his reflections on the sport's evolution.

Beyond the racing, the documentary explores the business side of BMX, featuring candid discussions about Hill's experience shutting down Greg Hill Products (GHP) and the challenges of sustaining a BMX business. Hill shares insights into the financial realities of the industry, emphasizing the passion and dedication required to succeed.

Lititz BMX, known for its commitment to preserving BMX history, is currently developing a 3 - 5 year plan to launch a business focused on preserving BMX history and providing access to high-quality vintage BMX rentals. This initiative aims to make BMX history accessible to a new generation of riders and enthusiasts.

Floored: A Garage & BMX Story is set to premiere in home theaters worldwide through this podcast and select streaming services. For more information on screenings and to learn more about Lititz BMX's upcoming projects, visit <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?...> or their YouTube page at / @lititzbmx17543

About Greg Hill:

Greg Hill is a BMX Hall of Famer and one of the most influential figures in the sport's history. With numerous national titles and a pioneering spirit, Hill has significantly shaped the landscape of BMX racing and continues to inspire riders worldwide.

Epoxy Surface Professionals:

Learn more about Greg's 'new' business: www.epoxysurfaceprosca.com

Instagram - / epoxysurfaceprofessionals

Facebook - / greg.hill.540618

Full Length Video (podcast): <https://youtu.be/c1UMsoqgBfY?feature=shared>